Barnabas Among Us

One of the highlights of my year is working through the names submitted for the Barnabas Award that will be given at the Teacher Appreciation Banquet this Saturday evening. The names are so varied. Some names are expected, and some are pleasant surprises. Each name submitted represents an impact that has been made by one person in the life of others. You could probably say there is a story behind each name submitted. There would be stories about things that person has said, things that person has done, or just about inspiration that has been provided. We are blessed to have a congregation full of Barnabases who go about encouraging and serving others. Enjoy the list and spend some time thinking about their stories.
