IDOLS

Have you ever thought about what idols in today's world look like? Do we go through life "just living" and not really looking at the things we focus on and spend our time? It is important to recognize that idols can also be "good" things that we have made "ultimate" things. A few examples we often put our value and confidence in may include our... children, spouse, money, physical attractiveness, job, or even our friendships. Our status - relational, social, vocational, or financial - does not matter. Our sole goal should be to glorify God and to be obedient to Him! So, how does that look in our lives today?

When we awake with another blessed day from the Lord, do we start the day by thanking Him for another day to glorify Him, or do we start the day by "worrying" about the things we have to complete for the day? Is our day consumed with "life" and maybe some time for the Lord, or is it ALL about the Lord and everything else will take care of itself with the Lord's help?

What do you think a brother or sister in Christ would say if you asked them what they thought was "most important" to us by our actions and priorities when it comes to our walk with the Lord? I challenge you to sit down and write out the time spent focusing on your relationship with the Lord (Bible study, prayer, church attendance, Bible class attendance) compared to time spent on other activities in our daily walk. Are we constantly putting the Lord first in all things?

Pray and ask God to reveal the idols which may have crept into our lives - even the good things which are important to us. Let us believe at our core and make certain that we are never worshipping created things over our Creator.

"Little children, keep yourselves from idols."
