ERRING BRETHREN

We as Christians should see the need to reach out to erring brothers and sisters. Luke 15 illustrates the importance of helping our brothers and sisters. So, how should we talk to our erring brethren?

IN A HUMBLE WAY. We do not need to talk to them with a haughty attitude. We need to humble ourselves, or we will do more harm than good – "Love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant." (1 Corinthians 13:4)

IN A LOVING WAY. "Love is patient and kind." (1 Corinthians 13:4) When we go to our brothers and sisters, love them as God loves them, so good can be accomplished. Wouldn't that be the way you would want someone to approach you?

IN A KIND WAY. We need to practice the golden rule. "So, whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the law and prophets." (Matthew 7:12)

IN A TRUTHFUL WAY. We must be willing to talk to them about the facts. We need to offer help, but we must be truthful as we talk to them.

IN AN ENCOURAGING WAY. We need to always be able to talk to them from the scriptures. If we fail to do this, we fail to encourage as we should. (Hebrews 3:12-13)

IN A PATIENT WAY. "It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful." (1 Corinthians 13:5) If we do not use patience, we fail to do what is right. Losing patience will not help them repent.

"Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." (Galatians 6:1-2)
